

PART I

Question bank. The student should be able to answer the following questions.

1. How are you?	13. Where is the stadium?
2. What is your name?	14. How many hospitals are there?
3. Are you a doctor?	15. Are there supermarkets in your area?
4. Is there a clock in the classroom?	16. Where is Peter?
5. Are there books in the classroom?	17. Is Kate in the living room?
6. How many students are there in class?	18. How many rooms are there in your house?
7. Where is the map?	19. How many people are there in your house?
8. Is there a map on the wall?	20. Is the hospital next to the supermarket?
9. Are there any toasters in your living room?	21. Is the notebook on the desk?
10. Is there a fridge in your kitchen?	22. Are there any flowers in the vase?
11. Is there an oven in your bedroom?	23. What place is behind/next to/... the library?
12. Is there a bank in your neighborhood?	24. Is your house big or small?

PART II. Describe your house

A successful presentation should look like the following:

In my house there are 6 rooms, there is a living room, a modern kitchen, a bathroom and a dining room, there are 2 beautiful bedrooms. In my bedroom there is a big TV in front of my bed, an Xbox, a closet and my computer is on my desk.

PART III. Describe your classroom

A successful presentation should look like the following:

In my classroom there are 30 desks for the students and there is one big desk for our teacher. There is a whiteboard on the wall, and next to the whiteboard there is a map. There are some windows and there is a door.